DAKOTA CREW DEFEATS WEST VIRGINIA MEN

The South Dakota race boat crew won over the West Virginians by a boat length this morning, after the two had rowed for three hard miles, over a course which took them far outside the harbor entrance. The West Virginia Jackies, who lumped together for the purse, lost about $3,500 on the deal.

Every vessel in the Navy is provided with a race boat, all of them of the same build and size. They are not racing shells such as are used in the ordinary regatta, but are barges, cleanly and elegantly built, on which rowing is under conditions such as would be found in the case of almost any skiff or whaleboat carried by the men-o-war-men.

The race was rowed off early this morning, the boats starting from a point in the harbor, and going out of the channel, over a measured course of a mile and back over the same course.

Owing to the fact that over $3000 was up on each side of the purse, interest in the outcome was tremendous.

Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell, and Daniel J. O'Keefe of the Executive Council of the American Federation of Labor conferred with lawyers in Washington as to action to prevent the injunction secured by the Buck Stove and Range Company of St. Louis from being made permanent.

Suddy Richardson, who has served as a reporter on many Southern newspapers, has proclaimed himself an independent candidate for Governor of Texas, opposing prohibition, his platform being: "I stand for what is right; with the help of God I intend to be Governor of Texas."

Tennessee Team Wins

Beats Washingtons
By 9 to 3
Score

The Tennessee's baseball team this morning won the right to play with the Californias Wednesday in a game which may decide the championship of the Second Division of the Fleet, by defeating the aggregation of the cruiser Washington by a score of 9 to 3. The game was played at Baseball Park, beginning at 10 o'clock. Tennessee, by winning all the games since the ships arrived here, has won a right, which seemed almost an impossibility before the Honolulu games, of looking at the coveted pennant.

The game this morning puts them even with the Washington team.

Both scored heavily in the first inning, and crossed the pan again in the fifth, during which time it still seemed that the Washingtons had a chance to come ahead and win out, though the score was against them. Then, in the eighth, they threw their chances away. A man walked and another took his base when hit by a pitched ball. The first runner was caught off second, but the ball was thrown away, and he romped home. The left fielder dropped an easy one, Rice the slabster, got wild, and three men in all scored. That ended the scoring of the game, but not some very pretty playing, the chief feature of which was a long running catch by Sacha, which made up for his error earlier in the play. It was good baseball, except for some weak work at shortstop, and a tendency to get up in the air which the losers showed.

Runs and hits by innings:

Tennessee 3 1 0 0 2 0 0 3 0—9

Maui Democratic Candidates

(Special to the Bulletin)
WAILUKU, Maui, Sept. 4. — The delegates to the Democratic convention held a caucus in Lahaina last evening and the delegates were instructed to vote as follows: For Sheriff, T. B. Lyons (D.); Lahaina Supervisor, G. Kauhi (H.R.); for Senator, D. H. Kahaulelo (R.); Representative, Chas. Makekau (R.); for Auditor, Chas. Wilcox (R.); for Treasurer, L. M. Baldwin (R.); for County Attorney, J. W. Kalua (D.); for County Clerk, W. F. Kaue (R.); for Lahaina Deputy Sheriff, Moses Kahaahana (D.); Wm. White (H.R.) is also looking for choice as Representative from Lahaina, and may bring into action his old-time shrewdness that may win him the desired nomination, for Oily Bill is a factor at nominating conventions. The Republicans are lying back and have not yet announced their candidates, but whenever they fall into public gaze no one will have cause for regret.
